NET RIVALS MEET AT MERION TODAY

Wallace Johnson and Stanley Pearson Will Fight It Out for Pennsylvania Title

MATCH BEGINS AT 2 P. M.

By SPICK HALL. Wallace F. Johnson, of Cynwyd, and Stanley W. Pearson, Germantown Cricket Club, who at various times have held together and separately very nearly all of the lawn-tennis titles in this section, are booked to clash again this afternoon. They have met many times before, but never in a final for the Pennsylvania title.

The afternoon's singles event is booked for 2 o'clock at Merion and will be started there unless more rain comes along to stop it. After that the doubles semi-finals will be played and if possible the finals. If the finals are not played off this afternoon it is likely that they will be postponed for more than a week, as the Eastern Pennsylvania tournament begins tomorrow afternoon at Philadelphia and the Delaware tournament starts on Monday at Wilmington.

Yesterday Johnson reached the finals by beating Syd Thayer on a slippery court in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, and Pearson had a walkover in eliminating J. B. Evans, Jr., of Harvard, 6-0, 6-1. Ted Edwards and John C. Bell, Jr., began their semi-finals double match and were leading Pearson and Cap Wister 3-1 when rain began to fall so heavily that further play was impossible.

UNIONTOWN RACE TODAY

Twelve Drivers to Contest for Universal Trophy on Speedway

Uniontown, Pa., June 18.—Twelve drivers and their racing cars are ready for the 225-mile Universal Trophy Cup Race on the automobile speedway here today. The track has been put in first-class condition, and predictions of fast times are freely being uttered by all followers of the sport. Many persons from a distance have arrived, and at the track arrangements were completed to care for the automobile race. Drivers who are expected to come from this and surrounding States.

BLEACHERS' PSYCHIC WAVES KEEP BALL CLUBS IN CELLAR

Dr. James Penniman Turns Analyst of Fan and Finds Philadelphia Brand Poor Sports

Terms Connie Mack Stephen Girard of Game—Tells Why the Teams Here Cannot Win

As a baseball follower, Dr. James H. Penniman, brother of Dr. Josiah H. Penniman, acting provost of the University of Pennsylvania, is something of a psychologist; as a psychologist he is a good deal of a baseball enthusiast. Hence he has psycho-analyzed the Philadelphia baseball teams, and he is here to tell you that the crowds are as much to blame—if not more—for the continued defeats than the teams themselves.

Retired Five Years, Jeff Came Back to Be Knocked Out

In the long list of decisive ring battles through which the mantle worn by Sullivan has passed down the years to the bronzed shoulders of Jack Dempsey, there is no page to compare with that recounting the clash between Jack Johnson and Jim Jeffries in a sun-scored arena at Reno on July 4, 1910.

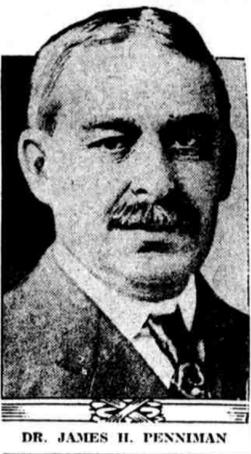

Tex Rickard reared a great wooden saucer out on the plains of Nevada to accommodate the thousands who gathered from all over the country to see the tilt. He hung up a purse of $101,000, an unprecedented prize in those days. Jeffries had not fought in more than five years. In the days of his reign in the ring, none had been so "birds" as Sullivan had been, and Johnson had had retired voluntarily with no defeats recorded against him. He was thirty-five years old, an age often reckoned as dotage in the realm of sport. The attempt was made to restore the championship to the white race with an effort to which he had been induced by a constant clamor from those who despised of himself as ever being better by the crop of white hopes than seeking matches with him.

It was a great throng that assembled for the battle. Fringed around the arena packed were rows of "birds' nests," built to shelter the sweet sisterhood from the Reno divorce colony. To them the fight was a charming break in the monotony of seeing time. Jeffries trained down to 225 pounds to meet the sleek opponent three years his junior and then in magnificent physical trim. He was vigorous, fighting at the start, with Jeffries crouched with serious mien and his opponent erect, grinning and talking as usual.

In the fifth round Jeffries sent a stray left that rocked Johnson and momentarily wiped away his smile. But the worried look on the black face passed, big white teeth again gleamed and through them came the ring to stop the slaughter, whereupon Rickard held up Johnson's hand in signal of victory. "Come on, Jeff, it's easy," he repeated often through the bitter rounds. Age and five years of freedom from the rigors of training told on Jeffries and the power of his blows grew less strong as the battle went on. In the sixteenth round—the last one—Johnson sent him to the ropes with a savage uppercut. Against the drooping head of the weary white man the black fighter then pounded away with one uppercut after another.

The challenger had tried and failed, and he fell taking punishment. His manager hopped into the ring to stop the slaughter, whereupon Rickard held up Johnson's hand in signal of victory.

DR. JAMES H. PENNIMAN

get no consideration for that at home. Mack is building up a team. He will win another pennant. All he needs is two left-handed pitchers. Roy Moore is satisfactory—he is—but he is only one man. And the Phils need pitchers. There is the fundamental trouble with both teams so far as material, regardless of psychology, is concerned. And you can't buy pitchers here now. You have to develop them.

"Bill Donovan, manager of the Phillies, is a gentleman. He is a park sparrow, a Philadelphia product. We should be always proud of him; but he gets ridden the same as the others." "Donovan has given us Bruggy, the best catcher we've had since Killefer went. The catching hit has been weak ever since Killefer left and Donovan is bringing it up. And if he stays and has the chance he will develop the great pitchers that he can't buy. His superior as a trainer and developer of pitchers does not exist." "Pat Moran is a gentleman and able, but he got no help from the crowds here."

Hard Games for Shanahan. Jim Shanahan, manager of the shanahan Club, has booked two hard games for the week. Philadelphia will play the week-end. This afternoon they will play Schaefer's Girard Field Club and tomorrow a new team, Charlie Gluck's All-Stars will make its first appearance. Gluck will pitch himself.

Let Brothers to Play North. Sam Germon's Lat Bros. baseball team will be the North's main attraction at Fourth and Chestnut streets this afternoon. Barney Blawie will be on the mound for the home boys. Tomorrow the North Phillies will oppose the Millville, N. C. champions of South Jersey.

Elephants Booking Games. Philadelphia's first-class traveling and home team, with a first-class manager, Tommy Pynn tonight, other home, Marty Harris, Frankie Howard and Young Jack Dempsey, will play the Philadelphia team at home, June 19, at 7:30 P. M. at the University City, June 20, at 8:00 P. M.

SCHUYLKILL NAVY IN MANY RACES

Sixty-eighth Regatta This Afternoon Attracts Classy List of Local Oarsmen

TWO NEW CUPS OFFERED

Class is written all over the entries in the sixty-eighth regatta of the Schuylkill Navy, which will be held this afternoon over the mile-and-one-quarter course on the Schuylkill River. All of the clubs along both banks will be represented in the long list of races, which will begin at 2 o'clock and continue until 6. There is added interest in the regatta this year from the fact that two new trophies will be up for competition for the first time.

The Hoffman Cup, a silver trophy, trophies were donated through Harry Hoffman for just one year. Hoffman has drawn the largest entry for this event in many years. No less than seven crews are expected to enter the water, each pulled by a well-trained and powerful athlete. The crews that will strive for this cup are Endine, Malin, and the Philadelphia Barge and Quaker City. The distance of this race will be a mile and a quarter. Of course, the Schuylkill regatta would be complete without the presence of Jack Kelly and his cousin, Paul Costello. These Olympic double sculls champions will row in this event.

In an effort to produce a larger number of scullers a silver cup has been presented by Louis H. Eisenholt, and will become the permanent property of the club whose representatives win the junior single sculls three years in succession. The Hoffman and Eisenholt trophies were donated through Harry Hoffman, who was a member of the West Philadelphia Boat Club crew which won the original Hoffman Cup.

The weekly show of the Cambria A. C. which was scheduled for last evening was postponed on account of rain. Manager John Burns announces the same program will be held this evening. The club and Eddie Malin meet in the wind-up. Both ball from Port Richmond, Young Sullivan of Philadelphia, Joe Walling will be the umpire. Pat Donney vs. Harry Burke, Bobby Wilson vs. Joe Conroy and Young Kid Williams vs. Frankie Brennan.

Stetson to Play Tidewater Oil. The Stetson Hatters meet Tidewater Oil this afternoon on their grounds at Fourth and Berks streets. The visitors will be managed by N. J. and have one of the best teams in that vicinity. Carter and Marvel will be the Stetson batters. The Board of Governors of the Stetson A. A. have just authorized the making of certain games on Tuesday and Thursday. Tom Thomas and Charlie Miller will be the pitchers next Tuesday as Cuban Stars on Thursday.

Whalephants Booking Games. Philadelphia's first-class traveling and home team, with a first-class manager, Tommy Pynn tonight, other home, Marty Harris, Frankie Howard and Young Jack Dempsey, will play the Philadelphia team at home, June 19, at 7:30 P. M. at the University City, June 20, at 8:00 P. M.

J. MILLER TOPS PHILS; WITT HEADS MACKIES

"Irish" Meusel, Who Leads League for Homers, Replaced as Quakers' Best Batter—Five Athletics Are Socking Ball at .300 Clip

HARRY HEILMAN, Detroit Tigers' slugger outfielder, still maintains his lead over the American League stickmen. Heilman has participated in fifty-four games, and in that time has hit safely ninety-four times out of 218, for a percentage of .431.

Speaker, the Cleveland manager, has a big lead on his old rival, Ty Cobb, the new Detroit leader. He is hitting the ball at a clip of .414, while Cobb has stepped to the plate on 246 occasions, making ninety-seven hits, for an average of .391.

Roy Moore is the leading Athletic batsman, hitting at a clip of .409. He has been in but ten games, however. Therefore Witt, who has been in fifty-four games, is the real leader, socking the ball for a percentage of .355.

Welch, J. Walker and Hasty are the only other Mackians in the .300 class.

NATIVITY BEATS MCKENTY, THEN SIGNS HIM TO HURL

Churchmen Trip Chester, 6-1—To Play 41 Games in 44 Days. The Nativity baseball team played Frank Miller's Chester aggregation in a twilight encounter last evening at Belgrade and Ontario streets and won by the score of 6 to 1. Bill McKenty was on the mound for the visitors, and although he lost, Manager Phil Haggerty made a ten-strike when he secured the star southpaw's signature to a contract and he joined the club today.

Nativity has a hard schedule arranged in the next forty-four days. The schedule up to July 8 follows: June 18, Art Devlin's Brown Giants, at home; June 19, American Chain, at home; June 20, Camden City, away; June 21, Cuban Stars, at home; June 22, Germantown, away; June 23, Shamrock, away; June 24, Tanager, at home; June 25, Mahanoy City, at home; June 26, Cressona Tigers, at home; June 28, Germantown, at home; June 29, American Chain, away; June 30, Red Lion, away.

July 1, Norfolk Stars, at home; July 2, Adamstown, at home; July 3, R. A. of Washington, at home; July 4 (A. H. Macky), at home; July 5, at home; July 6, Chester, away; July 7, North Phillies, away; July 8, Stetson, at home.

Scraps About Scrappers

There appears to be no favorite in the Maxany featherweight championship match scheduled for Monday night, fifteen rounds, at Carnival Park, West Manayunk, where Tommy Cleary and Martin Judge are to inaugurate the open-air season. Both men are round-up into form and each will be in fine fettle for this crucial contest. Clearly has been sparring with Knockout Al Wagner, who is preparing for a match with Bobby McMan's at the Eleventh Street Arena, Monday night, while Judge has added Tommy Herman, a bantam, to his training camp.

Knockout Loublin has been matched by Pete Mitchell in a ten-round affair at the ball park in Harzler's, July 10.

Jimmy Mason is one of the best Philadelphia bantam prospects to step to the front. He is a Schuylkill regatta fighter and he will be unable to box Monday night at West Manayunk. Tommy Judge will take Burns' place against Charlie Walter Rigling. Under George Allison, the referee, two other bouts are in prospect—Willie Clark and Dave Griffith vs. Kid McCoy.

"Six pairs" is the name of a ball club being managed by Jack Palmer, local water-weight boxer. He will be in a play-off game of ball and he wants to book "six pairs" against Joe Jackson's team.

A match between Kid Williams and Louisiana's old-time chum, the same program with Joe Tipton vs. George Brown, at the Philadelphia ball park, on June 29, Harry (Kid) Brown vs. Paul Johnson, and another contest will show Danny Kramer as one of the principals.

Willie Macklesky boxes Billy Angelo in York. Monday's boxing program faces Harry White and Pug Todd will clash with Jackie Wagner.

Jack Palmer may be matched with Jimmy Sullivan at West Manayunk, June 23.

Eddie Rando has taken Billy Doyle under his management. Rando wants to match Doyle with Artie McCarr, Benny Diaz, Whitey Burke and Johnny Towse. Eddie also handles Pat Bradley, who is to meet Ray Rice Monday night at the Eleventh Street Arena.

Joe Crosson, of Gray's Ferry, and manager of Wally Hinkle, has taken Jim Form, the West Jersey heavyweight club champion, to Philadelphia. Wally has been boxing in here out of the corner of his eye.

Frankie Corbett will put on another show at the Corbett A. A. Second street and Curran avenue, Eastington, Pa., with George Jackson, in the stadium against Tommy Pynn tonight, other bouts, Marty Harris, Frankie Howard and Young Jack Dempsey, vs. Johnny Howe.

PENN FRESH STROKE DECLARED INELIGIBLE

Syracuse Protest Causes Eleventh-Hour Removal of R. B. Mattison

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 18.—If a Penn Fresh had been expelled from the Penn camp the result could hardly have been more disastrous than was the receipt of a telephone message from John Arthur Brown, chairman of the Rowing Committee of the University, advising Coach Joe Wright to take R. B. Mattison, stroke man of the freshmen eight, out of the shell and stating as his reason that Mattison's eligibility had been questioned. The eleventh-hour change that was made necessary has completely wrecked the Quaker first-year boat and deprived it of whatever chance it might have in the race on Wednesday.

It developed in the course of Coach Wright's conversation with Mr. Brown that Mattison's eligibility had been questioned. The eleventh-hour change that was made necessary has completely wrecked the Quaker first-year boat and deprived it of whatever chance it might have in the race on Wednesday.

NATIONAL DISGRACE

So Says Dr. Crafts of Dempsey-Carpenter Bout

Cincinnati, June 18.—Dr. Wilbur F. Crafts, of Washington, founder and head of the International Reform Bureau, forwarded from Cincinnati today a petition to Secretary of State Hughes requesting him to stop the fight between Dempsey and Carpenter in Jersey City on July 2. The petition was sent on behalf of the Life and Thought Club, an organization of business men of Lincoln, Neb., according to Dr. Crafts.

"The petition is based on the ground that the fight is a national disgrace," said Dr. Crafts today. "The Supreme Court of the United States has decided neither Louisiana nor any other State could legalize a lottery to the detriment of the citizens thereof. Therefore, no State has the power to legalize so brutal a spectacle as a prize fight. No State has the right to bargain away the public morals."

"If the petition bears no fruit I will look around for a judge who has courage enough to enjoin the fight just as I enjoined one in which the late Joe Fitzsimmons was to participate in St. Paul."
